

City's Social Life

THE GAYETIES AND ACTIVITIES OF THE WEEK

His Debut.

And what is a girl?
A morsel of ribbon and feathers and lace;
A mischievous elf with an angel's face!
A thorn that will draw blood
A rose that will please you
A will-o'-the-wisp for flailing your chase—
And that is a girl!

And what is a girl?
A riddle whose meaning no mortal can guess;
With "No" on her tongue when her heart would say "Yes!"
Half artful, half simple,
Half pout and half dimple,
Whose eyes will betray what her lips would refrain—
And that is a girl!

—Harlem Life.

His Valentine.

I scribbled and saved for weeks and weeks
And went without cigars and wine,
And even skinned a cat for my dear
To buy sweet Mary a valentine.
I wrote her a valentine, I wrote her a valentine,
Pink cupid, rosy doves and rings,
Two hearts beneath a marriage-bell,
And verses full of tender things.

But lo! I happened in to see
Another fellow that she knew,
And saw twinkling in his looking glass
The dainty square of white and blue.
Oh, maiden tried in deep despair,
You acted on a saving grace,
Received my loving valentine
And sent it to the other man!

—Minnis Irving, in the Criticism.

The Week.

Luncheons and small afternoon companies have characterized the society life of the past week. The advent of Lent is partly responsible for the number of such functions; but it is a noticeable fact that these simpler modes of entertaining are growing more and more in popular favor. There are fads and fashions in society entertainments just as in the styles of "mildly" gowns. The afternoon was at the height of its popularity not so very long ago, and hostesses vied with each other to make their afternoon teas as elaborate and beautiful as possible. With the realization that these attempts were unappreciated or maybe the fact that they grew tired of the effort such entertaining called for, the popularity of the afternoon reception has waned. Card parties, too, formerly met with more favor than they now do, and as for the evening party, with its "ice cream refreshments" and no entertainment for the guests other than that they furnish each other, it is long since a thing of the past. There have, of course, been receptions this winter, large and beautiful ones, as the past week bears evidence. There are clubs have flourished as of yore, but the luncheon and informal afternoon company seem to have gained society's first approval, and bid fair to keep it for some time to come.

On Monday afternoon Mrs. George Hume was the hostess for a musicale in honor of her guest, Miss McLeod, of Scranton, Pa. Monday evening the Columbia Club gave its last dinner dance of the season, which was largely attended. Tuesday Mrs. P. A. Hinds gave a pink and green luncheon for Miss Spencer, of St. Louis, with Miss Burford, and Mrs. Clark Mallory entertained her club at luncheon with Mrs. Swain's guest, Mrs. M. L. Saylor, of Chicago, and Mrs. Hendrickson's guests, Mrs. Bank and Mrs. Thompson, of Chicago. The same day Mrs. Medford B. Wilson was the hostess for a beautiful luncheon.

Tuesday afternoon Miss McLeod was the guest of honor at a pretty card party given by Mrs. Edward L. McKee. Tuesday evening the Dramatic Club presented the play, "Margery's Kisses," before a large and appreciative audience.

On Wednesday evening Mrs. Edward Elliot entertained at luncheon for Mrs. Hendrickson and her guests, Miss Nellie Peake, of Kansas City, who is with Mrs. W. E. Stevenson, was the guest of honor at a evening party that afternoon. Wednesday evening Mrs. Harry Murphy was the hostess for a dinner in honor of Miss Spencer.

Thursday morning Mrs. Carleton B. McCulloch gave a small company for her guest, Miss Plicher, of Nashville, Tenn. In the afternoon Miss Macy Coughlin gave a Valentine party for Miss Sarah Cook, of Troy, N. Y., who is visiting Mrs. Henry L. Beveridge, and Mrs. Thomas A. Swain gave a large and beautiful reception at her home in Morton Place, Mrs. D. S. Hill gave a dinner that evening at the Hotel English for Miss Peake, and Mrs. A. M. De Souchet entertained Mrs. Hendrickson and her guests at dinner. Thursday evening Miss Milla Coburn gave a small hearts party for Miss McLeod, of Scranton, Pa.

Friday Mrs. William E. Kurtz entertained a number of young women with a daffodil luncheon for Miss Margaret Chislett, of Pittsburg. Friday afternoon Mrs. Henry P. Coburn was the hostess for a tea in honor of her sister, Mrs. Morris MacDonnell, and at the same time a large Valentine euchre party was given by Mrs. Frank Millikan for Mrs. H. L. Saylor, Mrs. Banks and Mrs. Thompson, of Chicago.

Yesterday Mrs. J. Alfred Barnard entertained at luncheon for Mrs. Laura Ritzinger Briggs, of Cambridge, Mass., who is visiting her mother, Mrs. Myla Ritzinger, and Miss Edith McMaster gave a luncheon, with Miss Potter, of Denver, as the guest of honor.

TEETH AND FOOD

A Help in Time of Need.

Sometimes bad teeth cause illness, particularly when they are not fit to masticate food. A man in Ada, O., had all of his teeth drawn. He was sick with indigestion and lack of vitality and his teeth were in a bad condition. He expected, with a new complete set of teeth, to regain his health by thoroughly chewing his food, but he had an experience that is well worth knowing of.

"Instead of improving I continued to lose strength," he says, "until I was a mere moving skeleton. I tried a number of prepared foods but none of them helped me until I got Grape-Nuts. The flavor pleased my palate at once. I soaked the food in cream and got along with it nicely. Within a few days I noticed that I was not so tired and jaded. Gradually I grew stronger, so I left off all other foods and took only Grape-Nuts.

"My old-time vigor came back and in two months I gained 15 pounds. This was remarkable for I am of spare build. Now I sleep and feel wonderfully well.

"Inasmuch as I am doing so nicely without teeth I have concluded to wait until my gums have finished shrinking before having a set made. I don't believe I could have gone through the drain on my system had it not been for Grape-Nuts. There is no doubt about the life-giving and nerve-building force of Grape-Nuts. I talk Grape-Nuts to all of my friends." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Imposed on by Relations.

"One might have a reasonably pleasurable time as a lone lorn woman," said Sarah, with an aggrieved expression, "if one's relatives would leave one alone. But just because I'm an old maid, as they delight to put it, I am supposed to have all the time in the world on my hands and be entrapped to do all the disagreeable odds and ends of work that they don't want to do themselves."

"Goodness! Take breath," said I, "and you'll feel better. That growl was worthy of a royal Bengal tiger."

"I don't chafe," said Sarah, throwing a French hat with a reckless fling that positively made my hair stand on end, on the lounge. "You don't have a lot of country cousins and aunts and a whole pack of sisters."

"All of me what it is." It always relieves one so to air a grievance.
"I wouldn't ask anyone to reduce their prices myself," went Sarah, "but I'm always having to ask them to do so for some one else. There's Aunt Betty, for instance, had a letter from her yesterday in which she said she was going to see Dr. Blank and say to him that I know he charges $3 a visit generally, but he'll please reduce it to 50 cents in my case. I'm very anxious to have his advice, and I can't pay him $3 a visit. I've just bought a new coat."

"Now, for native impudence, have you ever heard of anything to equal that? If I go, Dr. Blank will regard me as an impudent fool. If I refuse to go, Aunt Betty will tell everyone that I am a disreputable shop, in which she said she was going to see Dr. Blank and say to him that I know he charges $3 a visit generally, but he'll please reduce it to 50 cents in my case. I'm very anxious to have his advice, and I can't pay him $3 a visit. I've just bought a new coat."

"All of the disagreeable things that I have to do in this world are done for other people, anyway. I simply loathe to shop, in which she said she was going to see Dr. Blank and say to him that I know he charges $3 a visit generally, but he'll please reduce it to 50 cents in my case. "I loathe to shop, in which she said she was going to see Dr. Blank and say to him that I know he charges $3 a visit generally, but he'll please reduce it to 50 cents in my case. I'm very anxious to have his advice, and I can't pay him $3 a visit. I've just bought a new coat."
